MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Brandes Global Opportunities Fund (the "Fund") is managed and advised by Brandes Investments Partners & Co., operating as Bridgehouse Asset Managers ("Bridgehouse" or the "Manager"). Bridgehouse has retained Brandes Investment Partners L.P. ("Brandes LP") as the portfolio sub-advisor in respect of the Fund.

Results of Operations from January 1, 2023 to June 30, 2023

Markets & Effect

The first half of 2023 has been defined by the narrow market leadership of several U.S. technology companies. As a result, global value equities, as measured by the MSCI World Value, have underperformed the broader market, as measured by the MSCI World. The U.S. equity market, as represented by the S&P 500 Index, is up 13.9% over the first six months of 2023.

Cyclical sectors have driven global equity performance over the first half of 2023. The top performing global equity sectors in the MSCI All Country World Index were information technology, communication services, and consumer discretionary. Energy, utilities, health care, and real estate were the worst performing global equity sectors over this period.

Among global small cap companies, as represented by the S&P Developed Small Cap Index, is up 5.1% over the first six months of 2023. Information technology, industrials, and consumer discretionary were the top three performing sectors on the global small cap index. Energy, financials, and utilities were the worst performing sectors.

The Canadian equity market, as represented by the S&P/TSX Composite Index, was up 5.7% over the first half of 2023. The Canadian market has underperformed the U.S. market over this period. Canadian market performance was led by the following sectors: information technology, consumer discretionary, and industrials. Energy was the only sector on the S&P/TSX Composite Index to produce a negative return for the first half of 2023.

The international equity market, as represented by the MSCI EAFE Index, has also slightly underperformed the U.S. market with a gain of 9.1% over the first half of 2023. Amongst developed international markets, equities from Ireland, Italy, Spain, and Netherlands have led with performance. Information technology, consumer discretionary, and industrials have been the top performing sectors.

Emerging markets, as measured by the MSCI EM Index, gained 2.4% over the first half of 2023. Top performing emerging market countries to start the year include Greece, Hungary, Czech Republic, and Poland. The worst performing emerging market countries to start the year have been Turkey, Malaysia, Thailand, and South Africa. The sectors that have contributed to performance the most have been information technology and energy. The sectors that have detracted from emerging market performance the most have been health care, utilities, and real estate.

Performance

The Fund's Series A units outperformed its benchmark, gaining 12.6% versus a gain of 11.3% for the MSCI All Country World Index (the "Index").

The Fund returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses while the benchmark returns do not include any costs of investing. See the "Past Performance" section for the returns of the other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses or timing of series introduction.

The Fund's holdings in the United States contributed to relative performance. Holdings in software made a positive contribution to overall performance. Holdings in insurance detracted from performance for the period.

Asset Mix

As always, exposure to various countries and industries shifted due to stock-specific buying and selling as well as to changes in the prices of holdings. At June 30, 2023, equities made up 98.8% of the Fund, and approximately 1.2% was in cash and other net assets.

The Fund's most significant country exposure change was an increase in holdings in the United States to 17.5% from 16.2% at December 31, 2022. One of the largest industry exposure changes was a decrease in holdings in automobiles to nil from 1.5% at December 31, 2022.

In line with its bottom-up investment philosophy, Brandes LP continues to build the portfolio on a company-by-company basis. Brandes LP only compares the Fund to the Index in the course of ensuring that it remains appropriately diversified. As a result, the Fund's industry and country weightings were quite different from the Index during the period. For example, at June 30, 2023, one of the Fund's largest industry exposures was in pharmaceuticals, which comprised 7.7% of the Fund's portfolio, versus 4.9% for the Index.

Typically less than 5% of the Fund is allocated to any one security, at the time of purchase. Therefore, the addition or deletion of an individual security will generally not constitute a substantial change to the portfolio.

The Manager confirms that the Fund did not borrow money during the period.

Flows & Fees

The Fund's Net Asset Value increased to $173.8 million at June 30, 2023, from $168.6 million at December 31, 2022. Of this change, an increase of $21.8 million was due to positive investment performance (net of investment income), and a decrease of $16.6 million was due to net outflows.

For Series A units, the annualized management expense ratio ("MER") at June 30, 2023 is 2.46%, unchanged from December 31, 2022.

Recent Developments

There are no known changes at this time to the strategic positioning of the Fund, the manager, or portfolio sub-advisor.

The invasion of Ukraine by Russia on February 24, 2022 has resulted in western economic sanctions being imposed on Russia, notably barring Russian banks from the SWIFT financial messaging system, a key piece of banking infrastructure. In response to sanctions, Russian markets have been closed to all foreign investors. This has caused material volatility in Russian financial markets and impacted liquidity, market access and reliability of security prices. In addition, export embargoes may lead to increased volatility in commodity prices and global supply chain disruptions. It is uncertain how long the conflict, economic sanctions and market instability will continue and whether they will escalate further. The Fund manager and portfolio sub-advisor(s) continue to actively monitor the situation for any impacts on the Fund's existing as well as potential new holdings.

- The financial information presented in the Ratios and Supplemental Data table is derived from the Fund's Net Asset Value and is provided as at December 31 of the years shown.
- The management expense ratio ("MER") is calculated as the total management fees and operating expenses paid by each series of the Fund, including GST/HST and interest and excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as a percentage of the average daily Net Asset Value of each series of the Fund on an annualized basis. Any management fee distributions paid by a series of the fund that effectively reduced management fees payable by some unitholders are not deducted from expenses to determine the overall MER of that series. The Manager, at its sole discretion, waives management fees or absorbs expenses. Such waivers and absorptions can be terminated at any time. The MERs of the Fund are shown both with and without the waiver and absorptions.
- Portfolio turnover rate is calculated at the Fund level based on the lesser of purchases or proceeds of sales of securities for the period, excluding cash, short term notes and bonds having maturity dates at acquisition of one year or less, divided by the average value of the portfolio securities for the period. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average Net Asset Value of the Fund. The trading expense ratio is calculated at the Fund level and applies to all series of the Fund.

MANAGEMENT FEES

Bridgehouse Asset Managers, the Manager, provides or arranges for investment management, distribution, marketing and promotion of the Fund. Bridgehouse uses these management fees to pay for commission payments to registered brokers and dealers and general investment management expenses. The breakdown (commission payments / investment management, administration and other) as a proportion of the management fee for each Series are:

- Series A (45% / 55%)
- Series F (0% / 100%)
- Series I (0% / 100%)

Commission payments represent cash commissions paid by Bridgehouse Asset Managers to registered brokers and dealers during the period and includes upfront deferred sales charge and trailing commissions. This amount may, in certain circumstances, exceed 100% of the fees earned by the Bridgehouse Asset Managers during the period. For new Funds or Series the amount presented may not be indicative of longer term operating periods.

PAST PERFORMANCE

This section shows the historical performance for each series of the Fund for the six months ended June 30, 2023 and each of the previous annual periods ended December 31. Historical performance does not take into account the potential impact on returns of purchases, redemptions, distribution fees or other optional charges or income taxes payable by an investor. Keep in mind that past performance does not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future.
